85 ~~13-42-202.~~ Personal information — Disclosure of system
security breach.

86 ~~{ (1) (a) A person possessing personal information shall,~~
~~upon becoming aware of a~~

87 ~~breach of system security, conduct in good faith a reasonable and~~ ~~prompt investigation to~~

88 ~~determine the likelihood that personal information has been or will~~
~~be misused.~~

89 ~~(b) If the investigation determines that the misuse of~~ ~~information about the resident of~~

90 ~~the state occurs or is highly likely to occur, the person shall disclose~~
~~the breach to the resident.~~

91 ~~(2) If a person is required to notify more than 10,000 residents of~~ ~~this state of a breach~~

92 ~~of system security under this section, the person shall also notify~~ ~~any consumer reporting~~

93 ~~agency, as defined in 15 U.S.C. Section 1681a, that does business~~
~~on a nationwide basis of the~~

94 ~~circumstances surrounding the required notification, including:~~

95 ~~(a) when the notification is made;~~

96 ~~(b) to whom the notification is made; and~~

97 ~~(c) the extent of the breach of system security.~~

98 ~~(3) (a) A person required to provide notification under~~ ~~Subsection (1) shall provide the~~

99 notification as soon as possible after determining the scope of the breach of system security and

100 restoring the integrity of the personal information in the person's possession.

101 (b) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a person may delay providing a notification

102 required by Subsection (1) at the request of a law enforcement agency that determines that

103 notification could impede a criminal investigation.

104 (ii) A person who delays providing notification under Subsection (3)(b)(i) shall provide

105 notice immediately after the law enforcement agency informs the person that notification will

106 no longer impede the criminal investigation.—}

(1)(a) A person who owns or licenses computerized data that includes personal information about a Utah resident shall, when the person becomes aware of a breach of system security, conduct in good faith a reasonable and prompt investigation to determine the likelihood that personal information has been or will be misused.

(b) If an investigation under Subsection (1)(a) reveals that the misuse of personal information has occurred, or is highly likely to occur, the person shall provide notification to each affected Utah resident as soon as possible.

(2) A person required to provide notification under Subsection (1) shall provide the notification as soon as possible:

(a) considering legitimate investigative needs of law enforcement;

(b) after determining the scope of the breach of system security; and

(c) after restoring the integrity of the system.

(3)(a) A person who maintains computerized data that includes personal information that the person does not own or license shall notify and cooperate with the owner or licensee of the information of any breach of system security immediately following the person's discovery of the breach if misuse of the personal information occurs or is highly likely to occur.

(b) Cooperation under Subsection (3)(a) includes sharing information relevant to the breach with the owner or licensee of the information.

(4)(a) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), a person may delay providing notification under Subsection (1) at the request of a law enforcement agency that determines that notification may impede a criminal investigation.

(b) A person who delays providing notification under Subsection (4)(a) shall provide notification in good faith without unreasonable delay as soon as possible after the law enforcement agency informs the person that notification will no longer impede the criminal investigation.

107 { ~~(4)~~ } (5) (a) A notification required by this section may be provided:

108 (i) in writing by first-class mail; or

109 (ii) electronically, if provided in accordance with the consumer disclosure provisions of 110 15 U.S.C. Section 7001.

111 (b) Notwithstanding Subsection { ~~(4)~~ } (5) (a), if the cost of providing notification will exceed

112 $150,000, the number of affected persons exceeds 100,000, or the person does not have

113 sufficient contact information for affected persons, the notice may be provided by:

114 (i) electronic mail, if the person has an electronic mail address for the affected person;

115 (ii) conspicuous posting on the person's Internet website; or 116 (iii) publishing and broadcasting notice in major, statewide media.

117 { ~~(c) If a person possessing personal information maintains notification procedures~~

118 substantially similar to those required by this section, that person need not provide the

119 notification required by this section if the notification is nevertheless provided within the time

120 period prescribed in this section.

121 (d) A person possessing personal information who is required by federal law to

122 maintain procedures for a breach of system security is considered to be in compliance with this

123 chapter if the person notifies state residents of a breach of system security in accordance with

124 the federal procedures. } (c) If a person maintains the person's own notification procedures as part of an information security policy for the treatment of personal information is considered to be in compliance with this chapter's notification requirements if the procedures are otherwise consistent with this chapter's timing requirements and the person notifies each affected Utah resident in accordance with the person's information security policy in the event of a breach.

(d) A person who is regulated by state or federal law and maintains procedures for a breach of system security under applicable law established by the primary state or federal regulator is considered to be in compliance with this part if the person notifies each affected Utah resident in accordance with the other applicable law in the event of a breach.

125 {-(5)} (6) A waiver of this section is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable.

Senator Walker's motion to amend passed on a voice vote. Senator Hillyard commented.

On motion of Senator Walker, the bill was circled.
